UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

BOLONG SISSIHO,
A/K/A ABASS

Criminal Action No.
 1:20-MJ-136

Government's Motion for Detention

The United States of America, by counsel, Byung J. Pak, United States Attorney, and Nathan P. Kitchens, Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Georgia, moves for detention under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3142(e) and (f).

1. Eligibility of Case

This case is eligible for a detention order because this case involves:

- An offense having a maximum sentence of life imprisonment or death;
- A drug offense having a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more;
- A serious risk that the defendant will flee;
- A serious risk that the defendant will threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or juror, or attempt to do so .

2. Reason for Detention

The Court should detain defendant because there are no conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person as required and the safety of any other person and the community.

3. Rebuttable Presumption

The United States will invoke the rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3). The presumption applies because there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed:

A drug offense having a maximum term of imprisonment of 10+ year drug offense.

The United States will not invoke the rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2).

4. Time for Detention Hearing

The United States requests the Court conduct the detention hearing at initial appearance.

The United States requests leave of Court to supplement this motion with additional grounds or presumptions for detention.

Dated: February 13, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,
